

Van Heusen Woman looks chic in SS09 collection

17 April 2009

Indigo and white and fuchsia and black collection plays an interesting role in her wardrobe

In a holiday mood : Indigo and white collection

This season, Van Heusen Woman's indigo and white collection reflects a light holiday mood. The silhouettes are relaxed that combine organic fabrics and linens.

Tops, shirts and knits are in lightweight and airy fabrics, to offset the Indian summer. Faux denim in cotton and linen feature in bottoms.

The signature look : Van Heusen's fuchsia and black collection

The fuchsia and black collection explores a play of contrasts in tones of pink, blacks and grays.

Bold stripes and colour blocking has a good mix of both regular formals and fashion formals.

Van Heusen Woman's formal collections

Van Heusen Woman looks stunning in her black 'n' white and blue 'n' gray collections.

The khaki and beige collection is inspired by the safari, a design trend that's quite the rage this season, softening the severe stiff look.

The bold red and white come together in an unabashed collection that can breeze through a formal corporate do and a chilled out luncheon.

All in all, the Van Heusen Woman's going to be spoilt for choice.

Prince ranges for shirts Rs. 1395/- onwards, trousers Rs. 1295/- onwards, suits Rs. 4995/- and dresses Rs. 1995/- onwards.
